^{Q79A}
(3) Attempt, with the Director of ASFA, to initiate steps for immediately expanding the attack on the more difficult problems.

b. With respect to 25X1A

(1) Make final representations to the ASD to establish, in connection with the production and weapon development effort, a research group which will be continuously engaged in seeking long-range detection methods and techniques.

c. With respect to covert activities:

(1) Establish a priority determining mechanism in which one man can make decisions with respect to the priorities for covert activities. Such an individual will seek the advice of interested agencies, but must make his own final determination.

d. With respect to general items:

(1) Recommend to the NSC a high priority in all activities concerned with Atomic Energy Intelligence

(2) Furnish technical guidance and support for collection activities.

(3) Try to establish more positive co-operation and closer ties between technical analysts and field collection activities.
